WINE RECOMMENDATIONS

Every wine tells a story, whether it be about the region of origin, the year of harvest, or the winemaker who envisioned the final product.

The chefs use their talents to tell a story in the same way. And much like our chefs behind the cuisines of our menus, no details are overlooked in the creation of our wine list. We aim to source wines that evoke a response, open the mind, and complete the dining experience.

For the month of March, the wine team has selected the following standout recommendations. They each come from smaller, lesser-known wineries or regions.

*We hope to elicit a curiosity in you and spark your imagination like they do for us.
Cheers!*

Champagne

0034 Pierre Peters, Brut GC "Cuvée de Reserve" NV $220

"The NV Cuvée de Réserve Blanc de Blancs Grand Cru Brut is a blend of 60 parcels in the Côte des Blancs, so 100% Chardonnay. The newest disgorgement from November 2015 is based on 2013, which was "a great year for Chardonnay," according to Rodolphe Péters. Fifty percent of the blend is based on 2013, the other 50% come from the perpetual réserve, which is stored in stainless steel, cement and oak vats. The wine has a brilliant color, is very clear, precise and complex on the nose, displaying fresh lemon fruit aromas. Intense and complex as well as super fresh and clear on the palate, this elegant wine is still very young, but offers a stunning fruit intensity and a firm and mineral structure; there is a long and complex finish with a refreshing grip.

0063 La Caravelle, Brut Rose, NV $110

André and Rita Jammet carry on a proud family tradition of creating proprietary wines, they honor the spirit of their former La Caravelle New York restaurant, which was founded in 1960.

This beautiful salmon pink Champagne uses 40% chardonnay, 30% pinot noir and 30% pinot meunier with the addition of elegant red wines from well-known appellations such as Aÿ and Bouzy. With a floral and red berry bouquet, the rosé evokes hints of cherry almond, pomegranate and fennel.

White

2208 Bienaime, Jura, France, 2017 $ 155

This is 100% Savagnin from 2 parcels that are located in the best area of the Jura wine region.

The wine is full bodied, delicately perfumed, showing golden apples and fresh chamomile upfront with roasted hazelnuts on the finish.

2050 Domaine de l'Arlot, Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru "Clos de l'Arlot" Blanc 2017 $260

From one of the most prestigious houses in Nuits-Saint-Georges.

This wine has a well defined bouquet of orange pith and yellow flowers with touches of wild nettles and patisserie, brisk acidity and race toward the finish. This is a classy offering.

0806 A.D. Beckham "Amphora" Pinot Gris Rose, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2016 $ 95

Established just over a decade ago, this husband and wife team fell into wine making perhaps by chance. In recent years, they have started experimenting with techniques new to them, including this amphora project. Bright and tangy but certainly a more bold example of rose.

Red

6016 C. d'Or et de Gueules "Les Cimels", Grenache/Syrah, Costieres de Nimes, FR 2014 $ 55

A winery off the beaten track, down in the southern reaches of the Rhone Valley. This supple blend has notes of blackberry and plum accented by anise and green herbs.

6059 Viberti, "Buon Padre" Barolo, Italy, 2015 $ 135

Born from the union of in the heart of Nebbiolo grapes from the vineyards of La Volta and Bricco delle Viole, today this label at a distance of almost a century, is the result of the skilful assemblage of 8 different crus, included between the municipalities of Barolo, Monforte d'Alba and Verduno. The style is characterized by a fresh acidity that comes from the highest vineyards, extremely traditional aromas and an impressive structure, but with soft and elegant tannins.

5047 Vinedos de Paganos, "El Puntido" Rioja Gran Reserva, 2006 $125

Balanced and pretty with beautiful aromas of dark berries, citrus and stones, full body, firm tannins and a long, racy finish.
